Spoons

Starting April 1st, we ask that all Task Karate students bring a wooden spoon to class with them. We will be learning how to use it in a self-defense situation. It's important to have the right tool, so please comply with the following.

- No plastic, metal, paper or stone spoons, they must be wooden.
- Spoon should be 11½ to 12½ inches in length.
- No Dollar Store, Kmart, or Shopko spoons.
- Please make sure to clean the spoon before bringing it to Task.
- Be sure to openly carry your spoon to class, unless you have a conceal carry permit.

Spoons will be available for purchase, $5 standard, $99 autographed. Please let me know if you have any questions. Ms. Yehle was actually attacked in her kitchen, and was able to fend off the attacker using these techniques! Here is a video of the attack.

Facebook and Task Karate tag

I sure appreciate our students! I really like Facebook as an easy way to communicate and share what is going on. We have a mysterious problem with our school's "tag". If you tag "Task Karate" it comes up with a tag that is not our official one. On this tag the e-mail address and school address are not correct. I've tried to update it, to no avail. (If you use that tag, maybe you could do me a favor and try to update the address and e-mail from your account, info available at the top of the newsletter.) If you are tagging us, please use Task Karate School La Crosse Wisconsin as the tag! Thank you very much for your help! Closed for Sensei Demura's Tournament and Testing

Ms. Yehle and I will be traveling to Pittsburg Kansas for events with Sensei Demura and our karate friends from around the Country! We will be leaving Thursday night, April 21st, after the 6 pm class (advanced students, please attend the 6pm class) so no weapons class that night. I am scheduled to test for Sandan (third degree) in karate and kobudo on Friday, and we will attend the tournament and seminars on Saturday and Sunday!

New Schedule

The new schedule seems to be working well. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns! You can download the schedules on our website.
